

With the startling disclosure that Detroit's school children are being exposed to dope, Gov. G. Mennen Williams has begun probing all state agencies having to do with narcotics to see what type of legislation is needed to combat the menace. A bill already has been introduced raising the penalty for selling narcotics to minors to 15 years in prison and/or $4,000 fine.

The governor opposes the use of car tax and the two cents gasoline levy. But he is not committed to a veto. Aides state that his "position will have to be clarified." The fact remains, he just doesn't like either tax.

If adversaries of a gasoline tax wished to overcome the antagonism of the governor on the bill, they would couple a one-cent gas tax with a corporation tax which would leave him no alternative but to sign it into law.

Taxes? Michigan taxpayers (citizens and employers) paid $73.59 each to state government last year, putting the state 10th high in the nation for per capita levies. National state tax average is $70.00.

See You In Church

Whether you go to church or not; whether you give regularly to the church or not—the church is always there, as an important part of your community.

And when you want a child baptized or confirmed, you know where the church is located and where the pastor lives. When you want to get married, you go to the same church to have this ceremony performed. And when some one dear to you is dead you ask the pastor to perform the last rite.

So the church is always there to serve you, whether you understand its mission or appreciate its work or not. It has been kept going through the centuries by the work, the prayers and freewill offerings of its members and friends. The church has been kept going because a group of people in your community did believe that they were thereby serving God and their fellowmen.

We all know that the real estate value of any part of a community will go up when a church is located not too far away. And where there is no church, many of the finest families have moved away. That is why the churches do not pay any tax on their property.

Many people give regularly to the activities of a certain church. Anything you give to the church you may deduct from your income; which shows that the state recognizes the importance of the work done by the church.

But it is not enough to recognize the work of the church, nor is it enough to give to the church now and then, but it is even more important that you do attend church regularly. How do you expect your children or your young folks to go to church every Sunday, if you stay away most of the time? How do you expect your family to understand the importance of Sunday worship service, if you stay home and watch the Sunday paper instead?

This hour in church on Sunday morning is a period of worship where we turn our heart and mind to things eternal. By attending church we show our interest in the work done by a fine group of people, and also give the pastor a lift. We are helping people that want to build for the future, so that they, when they do good, may not grow weary.

SEE YOU IN CHURCH SUNDAY.

Rev. John Enselmann.

Plazma Unit To Be Here April 9 and 10

Neglect, it is said, is the greatest killer of them all.

Every healthy adult between the ages of 18 and 60 years is being asked to give a pint of blood to renew the supply of plasma and blood fractions in our hospital and for the boys in Korea. It is our duty as citizens of this community to volunteer a pint of blood. There will be three units left in our county supply. The first 24 units are to be sent to Korea for use of armed forces.

What is this plasma used for? The answer is simple - to save lives. More people die each year from accidents than from any other cause. In many of these cases either whole blood or plasma, if given immediately, can sustain life long enough to allow the physician to give further treatment. If blood is to be used it must be of the right type. The minutes it takes to cross-match whole blood or the hours it may take to find donors, type and cross match their blood, are the minutes and hours which may mean the difference between life and death. Blood plasma, stored in the hospital, doesn't have to be typed or cross matched. It is ready for immediate use.

Let us be assured of a constant supply of plasma in our hospitals. Your blood, made into plasma, may save a life in this community. It might be your neighbor's, your wife, your child or your own. Mrs. Minnie Hartley has taken over the duties of recruitment chairman.

Do not neglect to register for your donation. Call 4781 or drop a penny post card to Mrs. Leo Jorgensen, 407 Maple Street, Grayling.

Already filed to run are the three incumbents whose posts come up for election at the election. They are Don Gottho, Emil Giegling and Jess Schoonover. It is expected that possibly one or two more may file to run before the deadline on March 10 at noon. A five way race for the three posts is, however, assured at this time.

The Council accepted a bid from the McEvers Motor Sales for a new truck for light repair work at the regular monthly meeting held Monday evening.

Gaylord Stops Vikings In District Tourney As Frederic Loses Also

Both Crawford County Teams 1st Night Victims

The Grayling High Vikings were dropped from the District High School Basketball tournament at Gaylord last Wednesday night by the Blue Devils in a ding-dong battle.

Gaylord staged a sensational comeback in the final quarter of the game which saw Grayling grab a 21 to 20 lead at halftime. With two minutes to play the Blue Devils of Gaylord worked to a 32 to 29 lead and desperately hung on to the ball as a much more aggressive Viking quintet battled them down to the final gun. The final score was Gaylord 34, Grayling 31. Both teams clicked on 11 field goals but Gaylord dropped 12 free throws to the Vikings' 9. Jim Burch with 18 points led the scoring of both teams. Frederic High's basketball team, believed in advance to be a hopeless underdog in its district Class D tournament game with Hillman, Wednesday night, pulled a near upset and forced the Hillman team to go the limit to win, 47 to 42.

Hillman trailed 22 to 21 at the half and was behind 37 to 27 at the three quarter mark in a thriller that prepared the way for the Grayling-Gaylord game that was to follow. The capacity crowd that jammed the gym for all three games, cheered as the less favored Frederic team led by Bill Tobin and G. Welch, fought its opponents off their feet.

However, in the closing stages of the game, both Tobin and Welch, with Hummel as well, went out on personal fouls and with them went Frederic's chances for a tournament victory.

Not a Word About Economy

The Administration's tax message to Congress calls for very heavy increases in corporation and individual income taxes, on top of the boost which went into effect last October. It also asks for big jumps in the excise taxes on automobiles, appliances and other commodities.

All of this was generally anticipated before the message was made public. But the startling part of the matter is that not a word is said about cutting non-essential government costs. That was also true of the President's budget message, which went to Congress early in January. This blueprint for the coming fiscal year actually envisioned substantial increases in non-defense spending, to be piled onto a huge military budget.

Here is a policy which, if we accept it, can only lead to the impoverishment of our people, the sapping of our energies and resources, and, in time, to the breakdown of our system of government. We are in a very different position now than we were in 1940, when the last defense program got rolling. Then taxes—local and state as well as Federal—were low by comparison with the present. So was the national debt. And the family cost of living was about half of today's figure.

It has been authoritatively said that the budget can be cut as much as $8,000,000,000 in fields which have nothing to do with the defense effort. This is not far from the amount the currently proposed tax bill is designed to raise. It is the plain duty of Congress to make every possible economy before approving new taxes. The people will pay what they have to pay, and make whatever sacrifices are necessary—but they cannot be expected to supinely accept "politics as usual" in this grim era of our history.

"We are told what fine things would happen if every one of us would go and do something for the welfare of somebody else; but why not contemplate also the immense gain which would ensue if everybody would do something for himself?"—William Graham Sumner.

Michigan Mirror

ages is $61 per head. Total amount collected in Michigan in 1950 was $460,000,000. (Note: More than 78 per cent of each sales tax dollar is returned by the state to cities, counties, townships and schools. A major part of the state's $2,728.5 millions in federal taxes was corporation income taxes.)

In addition, taxpayers of the state contributed $2,728,500,685 of the 39 billion dollars in federal taxes last year. That is 7.05 per cent of the total paid in. Michigan has 1.23 per cent of the nation's population, state's share of the national income was 4.36 per cent. A losing proposition. Federal taxes soared from $137.1 millions in 1930 to $2,728.5 millions in 1950.

But Michigan is among the 17 states without a state income tax and also one of the 15 states with no state corporation tax—thus far. (Voters repeatedly rejected an income tax. Michigan employers in 1949 paid $1,645 millions in federal taxes. This business tax load was transferred to consumers in higher prices.)

According to the governor, Michigan money is draining out of the state because there is not state corporation tax. State taxes are deductible from federal taxes. Such is Williams' viewpoint.

A St. Lawrence Seaway project apparently has been blocked. G. O. P. controlled senate business committee has it in committee—and to all appearances will keep it there. Attention has been drawn to the seaway recently by speculation on a possible all-out war and draining of Michigan ore supplies, bombing of the Sault locks and the forcible necessities of utilizing Labrador or South American ore in midwest smelters.

At least $450,000 will be required to give minimum fireproofing to the state capitol building. Recommended is $225,000 for new wiring alone. In 1949 the same job was estimated at $166,000. State Controller Robert F. Steadman says that at that time the legislature severely criticized the recommendation, and instead of supporting it, recaptured $33,000 previously earmarked for the work.

The federal government has authorized 60 hours of additional training for the Michigan National Guard during the first six months of 1951. This is in addition to the regular two week stay at summer camp and the 48-weekly two-hour training periods.

The state defense council has asked the legislature for $7,125,000 to protect Michigan against attack. The figure is based on the belief that the federal government will contribute $3,149,000. Biggest item is $3,500,000 to continue and expand the blood typing program.

The legislature has $65,000,000 for mental and tuberculosis hospitals—and as yet not even the site for a T. B. hospital has been selected. The T. B. sanatorium commission selected Kalamazoo; Berrien county drummed for the honor; Van Buren county has its bid in—the bed shortage continues.

Little Hoover commission says the department of agriculture needs an overhauling. Pictured as a "conglomeration of loosely administered and badly conceived agencies," the commission recommends abolition of the bureau of agricultural industry; institutional farms and state fair grounds, and the division of drains and food in sections.

The cost of living is taking a breather. For the first time in months it has halted its advance and prices of some food—chiefly meats—have slipped back. Probably no more than a breather. Prices advanced 6.5 per cent in 12 months as of December 15, 1950. (Source: U. S. Department of Labor.)

Weekly News-Letter

From the Desk of Representative Emil A. Peltz.

Our committee on Conservation is faced with an epidemic of Sunday hunting bills. Already we have before us a bill to close Jackson County, another to close Ingham County, a third to close Ottawa County and still others to close several townships in Wayne County.

We have just completed a public hearing on these bills and find that the reason for this legislation stems from the lack of respect that many of our so-called sportsmen have for the lands and property of others on which they hunt. The remedy is not easily found. The closing of lands to Sunday hunting is not the cure.

We already have a number of counties and other areas closed. Since this has been done the problem has become steadily worse. Just as soon as a county is closed, those who hunted there before, together with those from that county, will go to the next open area creating a worse problem there. The counties that are open to hunting on the border next to those that are closed have to carry the entire load, and eventually come to the legislature to get relief by closing also. Then the burden shifts to the next county and the trouble areas through this process have moved steadily northward.

It seems that nothing that the legislature can do in closing or refusing to close additional counties is going to relieve the bad situation that exists. Any action that we take will only change the picture to the extent that we eliminate one trouble area by creating another and a worse one.

Perhaps the best solution is that as was voiced by most of those that spoke at the public hearing.

They seemed to feel that the only fair way to handle the situation would be to either open, or else close, all the counties south of Townline 16. The legislature would have a bitter fight on its hands if we attempted to open any counties that are now closed. Such a move is not likely to be tried at this time.

To close the remainder of the counties would be relatively easy because there would be much less opposition due to the fact that eventually they will have to come to it anyway. But if that were done it would immediately create another problem. The battle ground would then shift to the next row of counties—north of Townline 16. The army of Sunday hunters would be larger than ever due to the ban on hunting below that line. My suggestion that the citizens of the county that ask for ban on Sunday hunting themselves refrain from going to another county to hunt does not meet with their approval. Yet to me it seems only fair. If you can't hunt on your land then why should I hunt on yours. But such a plan would immediately bring about a tremendous enforcement problem and for other reasons might not be desirable.

As stated before, any action on these bills before us will not eliminate this undesirable situation. The best cure seems to be to remove the cause. Since the cause for this problem comes from those who fail to respect the property and rights of others, it seems that the sportsmen of Michigan have a duty to perform—Unless they can properly educate those of their ranks who will not respect the rights of others, they will find their hunting areas and hunting privileges further restricted.

County Important In Defense Crop Production

Plans were made at Lansing last week to center the activities of all agricultural agencies on helping the State's farmers to meet their share of the nation's 1951 defense production needs.

National production guides and Michigan's share of the national figures on important State crops are:

Commodity	National	State
Corn	90,000,000	1,820,000
Oats	43,500,000	1,475,000
Barley	13,235,000	150,000
Soybeans for beans	13,000,000	130,000
Flaxseed	4,000,000	6,000
Dry edible beans	1,632,000	498,000

Stanley Hummel, chairman of the Crawford-Osgood county Production and Marketing Administration committee has received word from the State PMA office that the State figures are now being broken down to counties and counties will be notified in a few days of their expected share of the State total.

Agencies represented at the Lansing meeting included Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration and Bureau of Agricultural Economics. James H. Quick, Chairman of the Michigan Production and Marketing Administration committee, was chairman of the meeting. County representatives of these same agencies will take part in the county meeting.

The dominant note at the meeting was that in the present state of world affairs adequate farm production of certain major crops is essential as the production of the munitions of war. Because of this the nation's farm production in 1951 must be adjusted to the nation's needs. At the same time, since there is a limited amount of productive land and since the emergency may be of a long duration, production must be geared to the farming practices and rotations which will maintain the productivity of the land.

Chairman Stanley Hummel explains the effort in Crawford county will be to insure at least the production desired from the county's farmers but without disrupting the individual farmers' soil maintaining the production-assuring conservation plans. No specific goals will be assigned to individual farms. The aim is to get the needed production in the county in 1951 and to assure that Crawford county farmers will continue to produce their share no matter how long the emergency may last.

In line with the plans developed at the State meeting, the chairman indicates that every effort also will be made to assist and encourage farmers to maintain the production of livestock, and livestock products. This, he points out, can be done by stepping up pasture improvement efforts. Assurances at the Lansing meeting indicate that the essential practices carried on through the Agricultural Conservation Program and the underlying research and educational efforts will be directed toward this end.

They seemed to feel that the only fair way to handle the situation would be to either open, or else close, all the counties south of Townline 16. The legislature would have a bitter fight on its hands if we attempted to open any counties that are now closed. Such a move is not likely to be tried at this time.

To close the remainder of the counties would be relatively easy because there would be much less opposition due to the fact that eventually they will have to come to it anyway. But if that were done it would immediately create another problem. The battle ground would then shift to the next row of counties—north of Townline 16. The army of Sunday hunters would be larger than ever due to the ban on hunting below that line. My suggestion that the citizens of the county that ask for ban on Sunday hunting themselves refrain from going to another county to hunt does not meet with their approval. Yet to me it seems only fair. If you can't hunt on your land then why should I hunt on yours. But such a plan would immediately bring about a tremendous enforcement problem and for other reasons might not be desirable.

As stated before, any action on these bills before us will not eliminate this undesirable situation. The best cure seems to be to remove the cause. Since the cause for this problem comes from those who fail to respect the property and rights of others, it seems that the sportsmen of Michigan have a duty to perform—Unless they can properly educate those of their ranks who will not respect the rights of others, they will find their hunting areas and hunting privileges further restricted.

Railroad Tax To Schools Nearly $5,000

Lansing—The economic importance of the railroads to Michigan and to the counties is graphically illustrated in a map being distributed for railroad station display by the Railroad Co-operative League of Michigan.

The map shows there are 9,052 miles of railroad in Michigan; the railroads' state tax bill in 1949-50 was $7,004,187.07, equal to $775 per mile of track — all of which, by constitutional provision, goes into the state's general school fund. The lines employ 38,598 Michigan workers to whom they paid $120,623,859 in 1949, an average of $3,132 per employee.

Each county's participation in the railroads' tax payments and other services is listed. Crawford county is shown with 25 railroad employees who earned $71,273 in 1949. It has 41 miles of railroad and this county's share of the taxes the railroads paid into the primary school fund was $64,998.75.

The railroads are the state's biggest taxpayer, the rail employee league declares, and adds that they surpass every other industry in the universal manner in which they serve the state. Their tax payments filter into every county, even into those in which they do not operate, and their payrolls help to make prosperous the businesses of the thousands of communities in which their employees live.

Only two counties in the state are without railroads, yet share generously in railroad taxes through the school fund — Montmorency, which received $6,156.60 in such taxes last year and Oscoda, $4,491.80.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT GIVING PATCH TESTS

The health department in co-operation with the schools is conducting a tuberculin patch testing program for those children in the kindergarten, third, ninth and twelfth grades.

The patch tests, which are paid for by tuberculosis Christmas seals, provide a simple, harmless way to know whether or not tuberculosis germs are present in the body.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease and each new case comes from some one else who already has the disease. That is why it must be dealt with as a public health problem.

In the early stages of tuberculosis there may be no signs of sickness. By the time a person feels constantly tired, loses weight and develops other symptoms, the disease may already be fairly well advanced. For that reason it is important to be checked regularly.

Chest x-rays are recommended for all those who have a positive reaction and may be arranged for by the health department.

The parents who have children in the above mentioned grades are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to safeguard their child's health by signing the parent consent card that will be sent home and returning it to the school.

The Pure Oil Settlement

Roscommon Herald-News)

If there is any doubt in your mind regarding the future of the oil and gas industry in Crawford County we suggest you pay a visit to the Pure Oil Company settlement. Drive out US-27, to Town Line road, turn left and go straight for about four miles. Here you can see for yourself how this major oil company has built its own village to house employees near the Beaver Creek oil field.

Seven modern dwellings that any city would be proud to have within its limits have already been built by the company with more in the blue-print stage for the near future. Nine privately owned homes have also been erected on the site making a total of sixteen dwellings built in this Pure Oil village within the past two years.

While an official census is not available it has been conservatively estimated that, counting men, women and children, over a half hundred persons make this new community their home. The majority of whom are newcomers to our north country.

The homes are modern in every respect, a far cry from the old time 'company' houses of the past which were usually tar paper abodes. Here one finds electric lights, telephones, plumbing, and automatic heat. It was necessary to run special power lines about three miles to bring electricity and telephones into the village. Field gas is supplied by the company to heat the homes.

In the camp the company maintains one of the finest warehouses and field offices found in our oil country. Bull dozers, tractors, well servicing equipment, trucks, graders—every type of modern equipment necessary to keep the wells flowing properly are here.

Exclusive of management, 20 full time employees are required to service the company's forty-nine wells already in production in this area. Unlike many oil companies in the field who contract a great deal of their work out, the Pure Oil Company relies on its own employees for all operations except the actual drilling of the wells which is contracted out to independent drillers.

This new town is equal distance between Roscommon and Grayling. Buses pick the youngsters up almost at their front doors. Those below the seventh grade are deposited at the Beaver Creek Township school while the older children are taken into Grayling.

Inasmuch as the Pure Village is strictly a community of homes without a single store of any description, it is necessary that all purchasing of food, clothing, and other necessities of life be done outside the community.

Pure's forty nine producing wells are largely responsible for the construction of the neighboring Dow Gas Plant, for it is these that supply the majority of the field gas to Dow. These wells rate with the best found in our state to date.

Drilling operations are continuing through the winter months. Plans have been made to keep these drillers going steady for at least the next two years.

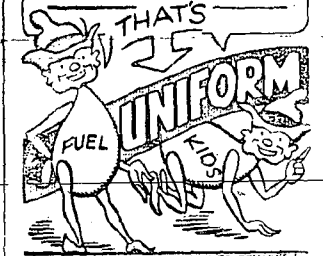

The Pure Oil Co. whose main offices are in Chicago, has long been active in Michigan Oil Production. It's just been the past few years, however, that they really went into action around Grayling. The pace they have set within this period has been the envy of all and unexcelled by none of their competitors.

Clarence Harvey, native Oklahoman, heads this Beaver Creek Division. His position commands the title of "Field Superintendent" and he is not only responsible for the operation of the wells, but also for the welfare of the Company's Camp. Mr. Harvey, though not a Michigan native has spent the past eighteen years in our states oil fields.

Assisting Mr. Harvey is Sam Sherwood who also has devoted the past eighteen years of his life to Michigan oil production. Both Mr. Harvey and Mr. Sherwood live at the camp.

That Schedule A annexed hereto is the tax record required by the act first above mentioned and contains the description of all lands in the aforesaid county upon which taxes, which were assessed for the years mentioned therein, have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, the description of all lands in said county heretofore bid off in the name of the State and thus held and upon which taxes have been assessed subsequent to the tax for which such lands were sold to the State have remained unpaid, and the description of all lands in said county which are delinquent for any installment of taxes under the provisions of the act last above mentioned;

3. That extended separately in said schedule against each description of said lands therein contained are (a) the total amount of delinquent taxes upon said description for the non-payment of which the same may lawfully be sold at the next annual tax sale, (b) interest computed thereon as provided by law to the first day of May, next ensuing, (c) a collection fee of four per cent and (d) $1.00 for expenses, all in accordance with the provision of the act first above mentioned;

4. That all of the aforesaid taxes, interest and charges are valid, delinquent and unpaid, and have remained delinquent and unpaid for sufficient time to authorize and require, as provided by the foregoing acts, the sale of the aforesaid parcels of land against which the same were assessed and are extended in said schedule at the next annual tax sale for the non-payment thereof, and that the said taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses so extended in said schedule against each parcel of land therein described constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein and against which extended in favor of the people of the State of Michigan, the payment of which lien this court may enforce as a preferred or first claim upon such lands by the sale thereof.

Wherefore your petitioner prays:

a. That within the time provided by law this court may determine and decree that the aforesaid taxes, interest, collection fee and charges are valid and constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein extended;

b. That within the time provided by law this court make a final decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land therein contained;

c. That said decree provide that in default of the payment so ordered said lands in said schedule, the said several parcels of land, or such interest therein as may be necessary to satisfy the amount decreed against the same, shall severally be sold as the law provides;

d. That your petitioner may have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem just and equitable.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated, January 26, 1931. JOHN B. MARTIN, JR., Auditor General of the State of Michigan,
for and in behalf of said State.
